CITY COUNCIL CANDIDATE JEROME SIBAYAN LAUNCHES VIDEO PODCAST SERIES:

Jerome Sibayan, candidate for Beaverton City Council Position #1 in a runoff election this September, has launched a new video podcast series, “Issues on Tap with Jerome”, recorded at Ickabod’s Bar & Grill a family-owned establishment for over 40 years at 12475 SW 1st Street in Beaverton. “So often candidates offer cliché campaign platitudes about issues important to voters,” explained Sibayan, “and I wanted to truly inform Beavertonians about my views in a longer format. They deserve that transparency about who they are voting for in September.”

The first ten segments of “Issues on Tap with Jerome” run between 6 minutes to 15 minutes in length, easily viewed quick episodes that address a myriad of issues facing Beaverton:

- “Issues On Tap with Jerome” Episode #1: Why I Am Running for City Council
- “Issues On Tap with Jerome” Episode #2: Beaverton City Charter
- “Issues On Tap with Jerome” Episode #3: Public Safety
- “Issues On Tap with Jerome” Episode #4: Transportation
- “Issues On Tap with Jerome” Episode #5: Infrastructure

- “Issues On Tap with Jerome” Episode #6: Climate Change
- “Issues On Tap with Jerome” Episode #7: Diversity, Equity and Inclusiveness
- “Issues On Tap with Jerome” Episode #8: Pandemic Response
- “Issues On Tap with Jerome” Episode #9: ...on the Lars Larson Interview
- “Issues On Tap with Jerome” Episode #10: Why Beavertonians Should Vote for Jerome Sibayan

“Ickabod’s was one of the first places I visited after moving to Beaverton,” explained Sibayan. “I tried their Bacon Mac & Cheese and became an instant fan, and a regular customer”. Ickabod’s Owner Bonnie Aman has endorsed Jerome in his City Council bid and was delighted to have the venue serve as the backdrop for “Issues on Tap with Jerome”. According to Aman, “Jerome has an extraordinary resume of experience that would be an incredible asset to not only the Beaverton business community but all citizens.” In addition to the video podcast being taped at Ickabod’s, Bonnie has dubbed a new item on the menu “The Jerome Sampler”, featuring samples of the latest beers on tap.

The video podcast series was filmed and edited by videographer Bobby Pallotta, Owner/CEO of Bobby P Media.
